DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

5801 Kipling Court is a three bay, two story, red brick house of a Tudor Revival style. The brick is set in stretcher bond, the flat-arched window lintels are vertical stretcher bond, and the sills are header bond. A single decorative chimney, at the offset left, accents the slate-shingled, gabled roof. A gabled projecting frontispiece in the central bay and two "additional" gables with windows also create detail in the roof line. The top half of the frontispiece is half-timbered and the additional gables above the roof trim are covered with wood. Windows of the front facade have sixteen lights. The main entrance, in the central bay, is flanked by stained glass windows of three lights apiece. An enclosed one story porch projects from the left side.

5801 Kipling Court is located high on a hill in a restricted Post-World War II residential development.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

5801 Kipling Court is one of the largest examples of the Tudor Revival style that was used in much of the post-World War II housing boom in Govans. Houses of this style can be found at 200 Lake, 200 Cedarcroft, 300 and 700 through 900 Belvedere, 400 Croydon, 500 Orkney, 800 Evesham, 5900 Bellona and 6000 Pinehurst. Many variations and sizes can be found.

5801 Kipling Court is an obvious precedent to the types of single-family detached houses that can be found in 60's and 70's suburban residential developments.
